

NOTICE
City Subscribers:

If you do not receive your Star please telephone 7-3431 by 6 p. m.
and a copy will be sent you by special carrier.

Hope Star

WEATHER FORECAST

ARKANSAS—Generally fair this afternoon, tonight

Experiment Station report for 24-hour period ending at 8 a.m. Saturday, High 96 Low 65.

54TH YEAR, VOL. 54 — NO. 281

Star of Hope 1899, Press 1927
Consolidated Jan. 18, 1929

HOPE, ARKANSAS, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1953

Members: The Associated Press & Audit Bureau of Circulations
Net Paid Circ. 3 Mos. Ending March 31, 1953 — 3,274

PRICE 5c COPY

Stamps Battles Hope to 12-12 Tie in Opener

A well-conditioned, fighting Stamps team battled Hope to a standstill here last night before a large crowd and walked away with a 12 to 12 moral victory.

Both clubs were rugged defensively but neither could get moving after the scoring spurt in the first half. Hope lost practically all of its offense in the second quarter when Raymond Churchwell was knocked out of the game. Sonny Griffin made some sensational catches on long passes but they were too scattered to do much good. Ralph Wiggins' shoulder jumped out of socket again that too was a blow to the Bobcats both offensively and defensively.

It all started out like a runaway when the Bobcats turning two breaks into touchdowns. The first, a recovered fumble, was from 33 yards out with Bruce Duke going the final five. Try for extra point was no go. It wasn't long before Hope picked up a fumble on the visitor's 31 and on the second play Churchwell scampered 29 yards for pay dirt. Again the point try failed.

It looked mighty fine to the local fans until Stamps' Ken Cullins circled right end for 65 yards and a tally. Point try was no good. A blocked punt set up the next Stamps touchdown on Hope's 30.
Oscar Allen plunged over from the three and the game was tied.

The tie was the best Stamps has done with Hope in the current series of some three years. Both teams exhibited fine, defensive lines that could almost be heard when they hit.

Statistics	Hope	Stamps
Number passes	20	13
Passes completed	4	6
Passes intercepted	2	7
Passes incomplete	14	7
Number penalties	2	4
Yards lost on penalties	10	50
Fumbles	2	2
Fumbles lost	2	2
First downs	7	5
Yards gained from scrimmage	115	121
Yards lost from scrimmage	24	70

Lineups:	Stamps:
145 Huggins LE	170 Oranum LT
155 Caughlin LG	155 Bond C
175 Harrison RG	165 Russell RT
155 E. Russell RE	160 Burk QB
160 Cullins LH	140 Allen RH
140 Lewis FB	140 Lewis FB
Hope
145 Coston LE	210 Cornelius LT
155 Hipp LG	175 Willis C
170 Wiggins RG	204 Cooley RT
156 Mosley RE	162 Griffin QB
182 Churchwell LH	136 Huddleston RH
150 B. Duke FB

Football Scores

By The Associated Press

El Dorado 18, Magnolia 6
Fort Smith 26, Van Buren 13
Greenville, Miss., 42, Hot Springs 0

Little Rock 10, South Side, Memphis 7

Texarkana, Tex., 27, Texarkana, Ark. 0

Class AA

Fayetteville 25, Siloam Springs 0
Spiridale 25, Cassville, Mo. 0
Blytheville 30, Osceola 24

Conway 28, Forrest City 13
Malvern 34, Magnolia Cove 13

Russellville 27, Paris 7
x-Smackover 33, Arkadelphia 6

Sheridan 21, Fordyce 20
Hope 12, Stamps 12 tie

Camden 19, Fairview 0

Class A

Datesville 13, Mountain Home 8

Cotton Plant 6, Brinkley 6 tie

Huntsville 32, Berryville 0

Waynes 10, Marked Tree 0

x-McCord 21, Walnut Ridge 0

x-Corning 12, Trumann 0

x-Bauxite 6, Catholic High, Little Rock 6 tie

x-Figot 25, Pocahontas 6

West Memphis 12, Parkin 0

x-Mansfield 7, Ozark 0

McGehee 26, England 0

Gurdon 33, Bismarck 6

x-Dewitt 26, Helena 13

x-Nashville 25, Ashdown 0

Stuttgart 20, Monticello 0

x-Crossett 7, Dumas 6

Class B

Gillett 18, Cabot 0

x-Clarendon 52, DeWalls Bluff 0

x-Holly Grove 57, Marvell 0

x-Horatio 40, Norphlet 0

Hamburg 19, White Hall 0

Watson Chapel 21, Star City 14

Warren 18, Rison 6

x-Fuller 26, Arkansas School for Deaf 0

x denotes conference game.

Unlucky Month

The month of May once was regarded as unlucky for marriages because it was then the ancient Romans celebrated the festival of the happy dead, according to the encyclopedia Britannica.

Try Made to Kill New Morocco Sultan

RABAT, MOROCCO (UP) —
Two Arab terrorists attempted to assassinate the new pro-French sultan of Morocco today by crashing their automobile into the horse
he was riding to prayer.

The sultan leaped to safety, unharmmed, as his royal guards shot one assailant dead and arrested the other.

Several persons in a dense crowd watching the royal procession were injured by the assail-ant's car, which smashed through police barriers at 500 miles an hour. Two royal guardsmen were wounded by shots fired at the assailants.

French authorities invoked security precautions throughout the city, fearing an outbreak of terrorist violence.

Rhee's Need for Help May Hold Him Back

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., the American ambassador to the United Nations, was supposed to attend the American political Science Assn.'s annual meeting which opened here today. But he sent word he could not be here because of the pressure of his work at the U.N. in New York.

His work at the U. N., no matter how busy he was this week, will probably be multiplied next week. On Tuesday, the General Assembly opens its eighth regular session. The special session which it began and ended in August was to choose U. N. representatives at the Korean peace conference.

That was not a particularly pleasant session. And Andrei Vishinsky, representing Russia in the U. N., may try to make life miserable for the United States at the regular session. At any rate, the Communists may disclose at the regular session whether they really want to have a peace conference at all.

At the special session, the United States, with Lodge doing the steering, worked its way through several tricky situations to get what it wanted. What it wanted was for the U. N. to pick as representatives at the peace conference only those nations which supplied troops for the Korean fighting.

This meant the United States did not want either Russia or India on the U. N. side of the conference table. Russia not only did not supply troops for the U. N. in Korea, but was the main source of military supplies for the Chinese and North Korean Communists.

The United States argued that India followed to sit on the U. N. side, might offer suggestions which would snarl up the conference. Besides, South Korea didn't want India at the conference and said so.
In the end, India was not chosen.

And, in accordance with Lodge's arguments, the U. N. said Russia could not attend the conference on the U. N. team, but only if the Chinese and North Korean Communists wanted Russia on their side.
Although the U. N. thus chose its representatives, the Chinese and North Koreans haven't announced theirs.

Visinsky may try to reopen next week the whole question of U. N. representation, although it all seemed settled. Such a maneuver, while probably doomed to defeat because of the friends the United States has in the U. N., would reopen old wounds.

The Chinese and North Korean Communists may name to sit with them at the conference not only Russia but India and possibly other nations not in the U. N. The conference is supposed to open sometime in the last half of October.

The Communists, by delaying tactics, might mess up this date.
It could be held later, if the Communists want it held at all. At this time there seems some uncertainty they do. But they have plenty of time before Oct. 31 to show otherwise.

This uncertainty, however, about having a conference at all doesn't compare in depth with the skepticism that the conference, if held, will be successful in solving the problem of divided Korea.

South Korea's Syngman Rhee is determined upon unification of both parts of Korea. This would mean unification under Rhee, since the South Koreans outnumber the North Koreans. No doubt it would mean retaliation against any Communists Rhee found bold enough to remain in North Korea. It is difficult to see either the North Korean or Chinese Communists agreeing to Rhee's desires. They would truly have lost the war then.

Rhee has talked of resuming the fighting if the conference looks like a Communist stall after 90 days of talking. He has between 16 and 20 divisions with which to renew the war. But South Korea, without United States help, couldn't support such a force for long.

VFW Post Has Third 'Operation Watermelon'

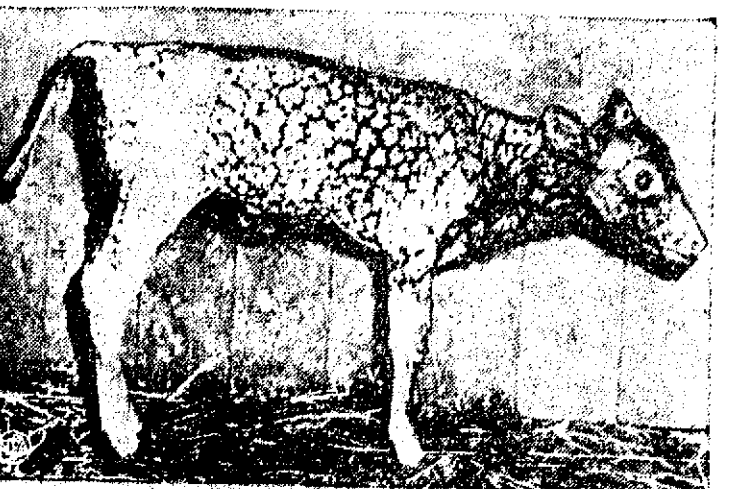

Acting Commander Claud Byrd of the Ramsey-Cargile VFW post is front right in the picture headed a committee in charge of 'Operation Watermelon', a project of the local post. Pictured with the Hope folks are hospital officials at Fort Roots and visitors. The melons were fed to patients there.

NO SAUCERY HERE—Farmers in the vicinity of Columet, Wis., thought they were seeing a sure 'nough flying saucer when this contraption sailed through the sky suspended from a parachute. It floated down on the Clayton Miller farm where farmers discovered a tag identifying the weird equipment as the joint property of the University of Minnesota and the U. S. Navy.

HIGH LIFE AT 110—Walter G. Williams, 110-year-old Confederate War veteran, is all set for his first plane ride and is shown getting last-minute flying instructions from Ella, his 78-year-old wife. The plane, flown by Henry Heji, took off from the Bryan, Tex., municipal airport.

WHAT IS IT?—This strange animal was born to a short-horn heifer on Tom Fulton's farm in Mankato, Kans. Now four weeks old, the "cal-deer" is marked like a fawn, runs deer-like, with head up, and has deer-shaped hoofs. Prof. A. M. Guhl, of the Zoology department at Kansas State College, said it was possible, though extremely unlikely, that a buck deer would cross-breed with a cow. Whatever she is, the young animal seems to be enjoying the interest she has created.

Local Safety Program Is Outlined

Tragic consequences of the Labor Day weekend pointed up the Health and Safety program, presented to the Business and Professional Women's Club this week at Hotel Bay-low.

Roy Anderson, prominent in the field of insurance, spoke to the group on "Discourteous and Dangerous Driving." Mr. Anderson provided the members with a pamphlet stressing 10 discourteous and dangerous driving habits of most motorists.

L. A. Harold Porterfield of the Arkansas State Police, gave a statistical report of accidents which have occurred in our section of the state. Lt. Porterfield pointed out that by close study of the statistics, we motorists could realize where our weak points are in highway and city driving. The hours that are the most dangerous, the speed that is the most dangerous, and the vehicle that is the most dangerous, were shown.

Miss Ona Grant, a registered nurse, gave the members an inspiring talk on "Physical and Spiritual Health," which was indeed timely.

On the entertainment side of the meeting, Mrs. Haskell Jones sang
"A Good Man Is Hard to Find,"
"Prisoner of Love" and "The Anniversary Waltz," accompanied by Mrs. Bess Evans.

Overcomes Loss of Leg and Arm

LAKE ARROWHEAD, Calif.,
(UP) — A pretty airline stewardess who recently lost her left arm and left leg in a speedboat accident is getting around in a rolling walker, complete with klaxon horn and license plate, and laughing with visitors.

Boni Buchler, 23, whose arm and leg were severed by a propeller when she tumbled from the speeding boat three weeks ago, says:

"I really haven't had any bad moments at all. I lost an arm and a leg. I knew it and accepted it.
Why cry?"

Miss Buchler receives piles of letters daily, some from as far away as Korea. Some contain marriage proposals. Her mother, Mrs.
Alice Buchler, of Scottsbluff, Neb., and her roommate, Actress Marjorie Millar, who has stayed with her at Santa Anita hospital since the accident, help read the flood of letters.

"This could have happened in Los Angeles," Miss Buchler replied when asked if she was sorry she went speedboating here with Geary Steffan, former husband of Actress Jane Powell.

"Man, I was lucky I was near this hospital and everything broke my way."
One of the things that "broke" her way was her presence of mind in giving instructions to Steffan on the way to the hospital — including telling him to breathe into her mouth to help keep her alive.

She recalls that an excited bystander got the wrong idea and told Steffan, "this is no time for that!"
The young woman who wanted to be a movie actress doesn't believe life will be too difficult without her arm and leg.

Poles Charge U.S. Kidnaped Interpreter

By ROBERT TUCKERMAN

PANMUNJOM (AP) — The Polish member of a four-nation commission, policing the Korean truce charged today that a Polish interpreter, who led to freedom, was kidnaped by American Army officers and demanded his immediate return.

Jan Hajdukiewicz, a 20-year-old civilian interpreter, broke from a truce inspection team at a South Korean air base Wednesday and was given political asylum by U.S. officers.

The Army won't say where Hajdukiewicz is now, there has been speculation that he was flown vitore to Tokyo or Okinawa.

Maj. Gen. M. Wagnowski, sending Polish officer in Korea, Saturday read a letter of protest at a meeting of the armistice supervisory commission.

The letter charged that Hajdu-kiewicz was kidnaped by American officers and demanded his immediate return.

London Sees Trouble in Commie Ranks

LONDON (UP) — Observers said today the Communist world has entered a long period of internal trouble and tension which may add great strength to the West.

Josef Stalin has been dead only six months, but during this short period his heirs have suffered a smashing defeat because of their uncertain policies.

The observers noted that the Molotov government tried to perce the hard shell of the anti-communist West with a "soft" policy.

Admitting failure, the Reds
purged Police Boss Lavrenti-Beria as a scapegoat and reverted to the old Stalin-Molotov line of general obstruction and open hostility to the United States.

As a result of this vacillating diplomacy the Soviet suffered three staggering blows:

1. The June 17 rebellion against Soviet oppression in East Germany.
2. The Sept. 8 landslide victory of the openly anti-Communist Chancellor Konrad Adenauer in West Germany's parliamentary elections.

3. Failure of the Tudeh (Communist) party to capitalize on unrest in Iran that led to the overthrow of Premier Mohammed Mossadeq's government and returned the pro-Western shah to the throne.

The same wavering and lack of decision also can be seen in Russian internal development.

In a sudden switch in economic policy announced by Premier Georgi Malenkov in his speech to the Supreme Soviet last Aug. 8, the Soviet Union launched its greatest drive for production of consumers goods and food since the introduction of the N.E.P. (new economic policy) in the early 1920's.

As the N.E.P. was launched to help Russia out of the deepest economic crisis in her history, the present concessions to the peasants are considered by London observers as evidence of the tremendous economic difficulties facing the Kremlin at the present moment.

These observers believe the Kremlin was forced into granting these concessions because of the peasants' sullen resistance to the collective farm system.

Similar concessions have been made in the satellite countries, indicating that forced collectivization had caused agricultural disaster and popular discontent.

Another factor working against rapid stabilization of Russia's internal situation is the continuing struggle for power within the Communist party presidium which rules the Soviet empire.

At present there is no reason to believe any of the Soviet leaders is any nearer to taking Stalin's place as a result of the spectacular downfall of Beria.

Ft. Smith Assigned New TV Channel

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Communication Commission said today it proposes to add 35 ultra high frequency television channels to the previous channel assignments in many cities.

The announcement invited comment up to Oct. 13 on the proposals.

Additional assignments proposed include Channel 39 at Fort Smith, Ark.

The Commission said the additions were possible without disturbing the assignments in any other cities and will help in bringing television service to a large number of areas as soon as possible.

Radio News Editor Shot to Death

WICKENBURG, Ariz. (AP) — The bullet-riddled body of Roger A.
Chase, 34, night news editor for radio station KPHO in Phoenix was found sprawled in the middle of U. S. 80-70-39 two miles east of Morristown early today.

He had been shot four times.
Highway Patrolman Hobart
Smith said the dead man's wife, dean, sobbing and hysterical, was sitting in their parked car nearby.
A .25 caliber automatic pistol was on the floor boards beside her feet, Smith said. It had been fired.

'Desk Officer' to Take Over in Korea

By FRED HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. John E.
Hull, a desk officer for much of his 36-year military career, leaves the Pentagon soon to command troops along the uneasy truce line in Korea.

The tall, strapping Oklahoman was named by President Eisenhower yesterday to succeed Gen. Mark Clark as supreme United Nations commander in the Far East. Clark retires Oct. 30.

Hull, now 58, has not seen combat since World I when, as a junior infantry officer, he won the Silver Star for gallantry during the Alsace-Marne offensive.

His World War II years were spent in the less dramatic but vital jobs of handling operations for all the far flung overseas theaters. He worked closely in this work with Gen. George C. Marshall, then
Army chief of staff.

Hull became something of an expert on atomic weapons five years ago when he had charge of Eniwetok atoll in the Pacific.

Polio Failed to Handicap Beauty Queen

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (UP) — Polio, mean as it is, was no handicap for pretty Anne Lee Coplin, Miss Virginia who is off now in a front-winner in the Miss America contest.

Ane, with the light brown hair and flashing green eyes, she had honors in the first night of preliminary judging with Miss Pennsylvania, Evelyn Margaret Ay, who caught the eyes of the critical judges when she appeared in a white number in the swim suit section of the contest.

Having polio did not do any harm to little Ane's qualifications.
She's proper height — five feet, five and a half. She has a 38 bust, 36 hips and measures 24 inches about the middle.

Ane and Evelyn took a short lead on the other 50 contestants, and Ane got her trophy in the all-important talent division. She brought down the first night house when she turned her soprano loose on "O Mio Bambino Caro," a difficult number by Puccini.

But getting back to the polio.
Ane awoke one morning a few years ago with the miasma. It was what her doctor thought it was and polio left her with partial paralysis of one leg. The medics did what they could and the plucky little gal from Norfolk took over from there.
She massaged her leg, she swam and she cut up capers on the dance floor. You would not know she ever had any misery today.
She trod the ramps with the rest of them. She's as cute as a cupie doll in a bathing suit. She is a music teacher, whose hobbies are sewing and cooking. She also likes to put on a white cap and go yachting.

Miss Ay wasn't behind the cabinet when the measurements were passed out either. She's an ash blonde, whatever that is, and also has green eyes. She is five-eight, bust 37, hips 36, waist 24 and stretches the scale springs to 122.
When it comes time for her to display her talent she will give her best to a dramatic reading.

Some of the same is in store tonight. One-third of the kids will parade in bathing gear, the rest will show what talent they have or compete in floor-length gowns.

On Saturday night, $25,000 in scholarships will be parceled out to the winners, with the plum of $5,000 to Miss America of 1954.

Makes mere man wish he could skin into a girle and get in there and compete.

General Hull New Far East Chief

DENVER (UP) President Eki-senhower today designated Gen.
John E. Hull as new army vice chief of staff, to be the new supreme commander in the Far East, succeeding Gen. Mark W. Clark.

Hull has been army vice chief of the army for two years. He is not a West Pointer but entered the armed forces as a reserve infantry lieutenant shortly after he was graduated by Miami University at Oxford, O., in 1917.

More Probing for Reds in Religion Likely

WASHINGTON (AP) — Testimony about a plot to infiltrate America's churches—"successful beyond even Communist expectations"— may provide the basis for further congressional probing for Reds in religion.

The House Un-American Activities Committee, which resumes its sessions into this year or early in 1954, made public the detailed testimony yesterday.

It came from active Communist leaders and told how the Reds, unable to destroy religion by frontal assaults, bored from within to reach their goal with the aid of unwitting dupes and pawns.

One witness, Manning Johnson on New York said not even the Reds themselves expected to achieve the success he said they realized.

Another, Benjamin Gitlow of New York, testified: "In the infiltration of the Methodist church, the Communists were highly successful."

A third, Joseph Zack Kornzador at New York, called the fifth column plan "rather effective."

McCarthy to Hold Hearing Over Charge

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) said today he plans public hearings designed to SOCIETY

Phone 7-8481 Between 8 A. M. and 4 P. M.

Calendar

Saturday, September 12

The Nandina Garden Club will have a called meeting at the home of Mrs. Bernard E. Dunn Saturday morning, September 12, at 10 o'clock. All club members are urged to attend.

Monday, September 14

The Business Women's Circle of the First Baptist Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Leta Russell, 1810 South Main, Monday, September 14, at 7:45.

The Union Meeting of the W.S.C. of the Methodist Church will be held Monday, September 14, at 2 p.m. Mrs. E. D. O'Leary will bring the devotion. Mrs. Sam Strong will present the program. Mrs. O'Leary will bring a tea for the kitchen.

All members of the Lullford Garden Club who plan to attend the September luncheon please call Mrs. Bill Hinton Monday evening.

Wednesday, September 16

The Hope Federation of Garden Clubs will launch the fall season of garden club work by entertaining all garden club members with a luncheon at Hotel Barlow Wednesday, September 16, at 1 o'clock. Mrs. H. E. Luck, City Federation President, will preside. All garden club members are urged to attend. Program for the afternoon will include songs and music.

The DeAnn Lila Garden Club will meet Wednesday, September 16 at 2 p.m. at the club room for a business meeting.

Notice

The Wesleyan Service Guild of the Methodist Church will meet Monday, September 14, as scheduled but will meet Monday, September 21. All members will please note the change of date.

Methodist Intermediates (Install, New Officers)
The Intermediates of the Methodist Church will meet Wednesday evening, September 10, in the recreation room of the church for the installation of the officers for the coming year. Members, officers and counselors are invited.

Researchers See New View on Cancer

HOME

An American research group today pictured cancer as an infectious disease, like tuberculosis or syphilis, caused by a tiny organism.

Presenting a series of papers to the Sixth International Congress of Microbiology, the group claimed to have isolated the micro-organism. Its members said they have obtained an antiserum from bodies of animals infected with the disease and that the antiserum weakens and sometimes destroys the cancer-causing organism.

The reports were read by Dr. Virginia Wuesthick Case, Dr. Elvira Alexander-Jackson, Dr. W. L. Smith, and Dr. G. A. Clark, associated with the Presbyterian Hospital, Newark, N. J.

They said their study of cancer induced in white mice and guinea pigs "has led to the concept that cancer does not consist of a localized tumor alone."

Instead, they pictured it as a generalized disease caused by an organism in the human blood stream. It is present in almost all animal life, including human beings, the group declared.

Generally it is held in check by immune bodies built up by the individual's tumors and other signs of cancer appear when the balance is destroyed by irritations of other outside causes, the papers said.

The work is admittedly preliminary in nature, and some of the other scientists attending the session were inclined to look upon the report with considerable reserve.

The New Jersey doctors said the micro-organism has been isolated from blood and tumors of "humans" of cancer patients and animals according to the researchers. They did not define the exact methods.

"While normal carriers of this organism are found, 100 per cent of blood from patients with cancer have given positive culture in a special broth," they reported.

When the germ is injected in mice and guinea pigs, the animals later develop cancer, they said.

Automotive Hint

Window glass may be broken if the door of the car is slammed when the glass is only partially open. If the window is fully open or fully closed, there is less danger of this occurring.

club voted to have an exhibit at the District Livestock Show this month. Miss Dorothy Williams received the surprise package. Mrs. Lester Beckham will be hostess in October.

PRESCOTT NEWS

Monday, September 14

There will be a ball game Monday night between the "Old Men" and the Little League boys at 7 o'clock.

The Woman's Federation of the Presbyterian Church will meet on Monday afternoon at 2:30 at the church for the monthly meeting.

Tuesday, September 15

The Rose Garden Club will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 in the home of Mrs. Harold Lewis with Mrs. Saxon Regan co-hostess.

The Prescott Garden Club will meet Monday afternoon at 2:30 in the home of Mrs. H. J. Wilson with Mrs. Inon Gee and Mrs. L. J. Bryson associate hostesses.

Wednesday, September 16

Mrs. Saxon Regan will entertain members of the Wednesday Bridge Club at her home Wednesday afternoon at 2:30.

Thursday, September 17

The Benjamin Cup Chapter, D. A. R. will have its first meeting of the fall season Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the home of Mrs. J. B. Hesterly with Mrs. Allen Gee co-hostess.

Wesleyan Guild Meets

The Wesleyan Service Guild of the First Methodist Church met on Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Vuel Chamberlain with Mrs. Lera Johnson associate hostess for the September meeting.

The president, Miss Frances Bailey, presided and conducted the business.

Mrs. Lela Hays presented the program on "A Sower Went Forth." Discussions were given by Mrs. Julia Cain and Miss Marguerite Avery. A skit was given by Mrs. John Eagle, Mrs. Thorne Hesterly, Mrs. Joe T. Smith and Mrs. R. E. Lindberg.

A dainty dessert course was served during the social hour.

Mrs. Clarke White Hostess to W. S. C. S. Circle No. 3
Thirteen members of Circle 3 of the W.S.C.S. of the First Methodist Church met Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Clarke White.

Mrs. Lee Kinney, chairman, presided and gave the devotion. The program on "Living Abundantly in Ru-ah" was presented by Mrs. Glenn Halstead.

Delectable refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Mrs. Jess Hays, Jr.

The home of Mrs. Jess Hays, Jr. was the scene for the meeting of the 37 Central Club Tuesday afternoon.

Daisies and roses in artistic arrangements decorated the room. The club honored Miss Erlene Grisham, bride-elect of Dexter Butler of Budawac with a miscellaneous shower. She was also presented a corsage of white carnations by the hostesses.

A delightful dessert course was served to fifteen members. Miss Opal Daniel and Mrs. Hazel Pritchard of Hope were guests.

Ministerial Alliance Meets
The first fall meeting of the Prescott Ministerial Alliance was held Monday morning at the Lawson Hotel with seven ministers present.

The following officers were elected: Rev. Thomas J. Mauldin, president; Rev. C. L. Tillery, secretary and treasurer.

Plans were made for the city wide revival to be held beginning April 4 and continuing through Palm Sunday. Services will be held twice daily.

Mrs. Jack Odum and son, John Sage, and Mrs. Alice Mickelson, of San Antonio, Texas, returned to their home Tuesday after spending several days with Mrs. T. C. McRae.

Pvt. Warren Kinney of Ft. Sill, Okla., has been the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kinney.

Mr. and Mrs. Adeline Guthrie, Jr., who have been residing in the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. P. Arnold, Jr., are now at home in the George Eastley home.

Mrs. Burke Shelton has moved from the home of Mrs. Wat W. White Sr., to the Hart apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill O'Rourke and children are spending several weeks in Little Rock.

Mrs. Johnny Phillips of Longview is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Franks.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Cox of Little Rock have been recent guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bomar have had as guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. G.

Price Hopeful Billing Will Inspire Team

(This is another in a series on Southwest Conference football prospects)

AUSTIN, Tex. — Coach Edwin B. Price of Texas believes only half of what he sees and nothing he hears these days.

Experience has taught him to close one eye and turn a deaf ear to the flattering appraisals of his football team. He knows that common sense bows to the inevitable and makes use of it.

Aware that the defending champion inescapably commands respect, Price is hopeful that the billing will inspire his inexperienced youngsters to justify the ready-made reputation.

Texas has been rated the "place" team in the Southwest Conference race despite the loss of 12 lettermen, 13 of whom were key performers in last year's grand slam championship and Cotton Bowl triumph.

The exodus of last season's heroes left gaping holes down the middle of Texas' split-T formation and finding replacements at center, quarterback and fullback is the chief concern in the Longhorn camp.

The quarterback problem has been as regular as September at Texas since Bobby Layne departed after the 1948 Sugar Bowl triumph. There is a letterman available this year in Bunny Andrews, a senior, but he logged only four minutes per game running the team behind the great Ted Jones last campaign.

All other quarterbacks are sophomores with impressive schoolboy records behind them. The leader among the untested quartet is probably Pat Tolar of San Antonio, who appears better suited for double-duty football since he has proved himself on defense as well as offense.

Charles Brewer of Lubbock Dick Miller of Cleburne and Glen Dyer of Sinton comprise the quarterback cast. Brewer was named the state's No. 1 high school football player after piloting Lubbock to the State championship in 1951. Miller and Dyer have profited by a year's seasoning with the varsity while remaining out of competition.

Inexperience is even more pronounced at center, where there former schoolboy stars are staging an interesting battle. The leader appears to be Leighton Younger of Austin, who played only 12 minutes last season back of the indefatigable Bill McDonald. His respected rivals are Johnny Tatum of Lubbock and Billy Harris of Wehita Falls, younger brother of all-American Dick Harris at Texas in 1947.

Two lettermen are dueling for the fullback job vacated by Dick Ochen, the conference's leading ball-carrier last season—Douglas Cameron of San Saba and Ed Kelley of Cuero.

Bill Long of Minneola is a promising sophomore candidate for the post, while Dyer, if he can be spared at quarterback, is capable of handling the fullbacking chores. Billy Quinn, all-conference as a sophomore and a record touchdown maker for first-year men, is a fixture at right halfback, with Chester Simek of Thrall a prized sophomore understudy.

Legal Notice

NOTICE OF SALE
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that in pursuance of the authority and directions contained in the order of the Probate Court of Hempstead County, Arkansas, made and entered on August 24, 1953, in the matter of the estate of Lula Smith, deceased, the undersigned, as administrator of the estate of the said Lula Smith, deceased, will offer for sale, at public outcry, to the highest and best bidder, for cash, at the front door or entrance in the Court House in the City of Hope, Hempstead County, Arkansas, within the hours prescribed by law for judicial sales, on Tuesday, September 22, 1953, the following described land situated in Hempstead County, Arkansas, to-wit:

Lot Ten (10) in Block Four (4) in Oaklawn Addition No. 2 to the City of Hope, Arkansas.

HOSEA WATKINS
Administrator of the Estate of Lula Smith, deceased.

Aug. 29, Sept. 5, 12

Legal Notice
NOTICE
IN THE PROBATE COURT OF HEMPSTEAD COUNTY, ARKANSAS

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF WILEY C. CLARK, DECEASED
Last known address of decedent: R.F.D. 1, Washington, Arkansas
Date of Death: June 20, 1953.
An instrument dated April 1, 1953, was on the 24th day of August, 1953, admitted to probate as the last will of the above named decedent, and the undersigned has been appointed administratrix with will annexed thereunder. A contest of the probate of the will can be effected only by filing a petition within the time provided by law.

All persons having claims against the estate must exhibit them, duly verified, to the undersigned within six months from the date of the first publication of this notice, or shall be forever barred and precluded from any benefits in the estate.

This notice first published 5th day of September, 1953.

MYRTLE A. CLARK
Washington, Arkansas
F. C. CROW
Attorney for Administratrix
Sept. 5, 12.

Legal Notice
NOTICE
IN THE PROBATE COURT OF HEMPSTEAD COUNTY, ARKANSAS

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF KARL FREW RABE, DECEASED
Last known address of decedent: R.F.D. 2, Nashville, Arkansas.
Date of Death: July 11, 1953.
An instrument dated June 27, 1950, was on the 24th day of August, 1953, admitted to probate as the last will of the above named decedent, and the undersigned has been appointed executrix thereunder. A contest of the probate of the will can be effected only by filing a petition within the time provided by law.

All persons having claims against the estate must exhibit them, duly verified, to the undersigned within six months from the date of the first publication of this notice, or shall be forever barred and precluded from any benefits in the estate.

This notice first published 5th day of September, 1953.

EDITH LUCINDA RADLEY
R. F. D. 2
Nashville, Arkansas
F. C. CROW
Attorney for Executrix
Sept. 5, 12.

ARMY SURPLUS SALE

Steel Tool Cabinets and Hand Tool Boxes - Mechanics Hand Tools - New & Used Hydraulic Jacks - Pipe Valves & Fittings - Plumbing Tools & Supplies - Steel Gates, Farm & Ranch - Cattle Guards - Clothes Line Poles - Fence Post Drivers - Fire Extinguishers - Television, Aerial Poles - Hundreds of items too numerous to mention. For Sale Cheap.

William M. Duckett
North Main Street

NOTICE !!

We are continuing our REDUCED PRICES ON BLANKETS, SHEETS and SHIRTS FOR THE REST OF THIS MONTH.

Get your Laundry and Dry Cleaning up today and call us to pick it up. Let one call do it all.

PRICES SLASHED BLANKETS

The first blanket cleaned at the regular price and the other one cleaned for only

5c

SHEETS

For each sheet laundered at the regular price another one laundered for only

1c

SHIRTS FREE !!

With each three shirts laundered at the regular price the fourth one Free.

SANITONE

DRY CLEANING

Get those fall and winter clothes up now and let us clean and press them for you, just the way you like for them to look.

NATIONAL LAUNDRY & CLEANERS

406 S. Walnut

Dial 7-2764

GREYER

FINAL NITE

John Wayne
Henry Fonda
Shirley Temple
"FORT APACHE"

WELLSMULLER

SAVAGE MUTINY

Chapter 6 of Serial "DICK TRACY"

"Herman the Cartoonist" Cartoon

Sun. — Mon. — Tues.

GHOULS OF LAUGHTER! GALES OF GLEE!

MARTIN LUTHER LUTHER

Scared Stiff

Lizabeth SCOTT

Carmen MIRANDA

EXTRA LATE NEWS 15 COLOR CARTOON

"TOM & PA"

RIALTO

ALWAYS 2 FEATURES

TODAY & SUNDAY

Two Gun Justice Hits Texas Badlands! "WILD BILL" ELLIOTT

"Lone Star Pioneer"

From the Novel — "Man About A Dog" ROBERT NEWTON • SALLY GRAY

"The Hidden Room"

LAST CHAPTER "THE SECRET CODE"

DRIVE-IN THEATRE

MAIN & COUNTRY CLUB ROAD • OPEN 6:30

FINAL NITE

SPECIAL CARTOON SHOW

6-COLOR CARTOONS

GREGORY PECK

JOAN BENNETT

"The Great White Hunter"

SUNDAY & MONDAY

A MAN WITH A GUN... and a Score to Settle!

RANDOLPH SCOTT

MAN BEHIND THE GUN

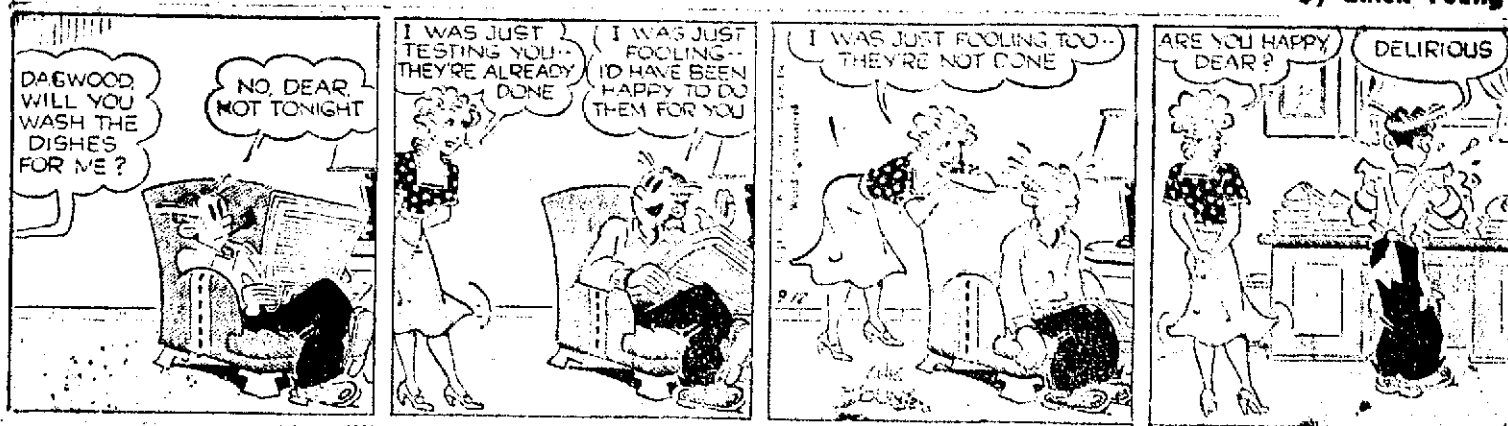

TECHNICOLOR PATRICK WYMORE

A MAN WITH A GUN... and a Score to Settle!

A MAN WITH A GUN... and a Score to Settle!

A MAN WITH A GUN... and a Score to Settle!

BLONDIE

By Chick Young

OZARK IRE

By Ray Gatto

In Saudi Arabia

Answer to Previous Puzzle

ACROSS

1,6 — and — are the two capitals of Saudi Arabia

11 Papal cape

12 Cave

13 Looks fixedly

14 Lamprey

16 Book of the Bible

17 Laughing

18 Mineral rock

19 North Dakota (ab.)

21 Court (ab.)

22 Expire

23 Larrikin

25 Royal Scottish Academy (ab.)

27 Eskers

28 — has one of the most modern airports in the Middle East

31 Fault

32 Go by

35 Bustle

36 Saudi Arabia has many wells (pl.)

40 Fruit drink

41 Case (ab.)

42 Tasto solo (ab.)

44 New (comb. form)

45 The Arab is a

47 Flower part

49 Rugged crests of mountains

51 Compulsion

52 Eaten away

DOWN

1 Engines

2 Expunges

3 Solitude

4 Unsold

5 Roman bronze

6 Scottish sallyard

7 Lethargic

8 Husband of Gudrun

9 Pears

10 Rupture

13 Exclamation

32 Brazilian state

33 Idolized

34 Cruel

37 Mean

38 Rents

39 Suns

41 Wave top

43 Scum

46 Famous

48 English school

50 Session (ab.)

51 Flatfish

OUT OUR WAY

By J. R. Williams

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

With Major Hoople

FUNNY BUSINESS

By Hershberger

HENRY

By Carl Anderson

VIC FLINT

By Michael O'Malley and Ralph Lane

WASH TUBBS

By Leslie Turner

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

By Edgar Martin

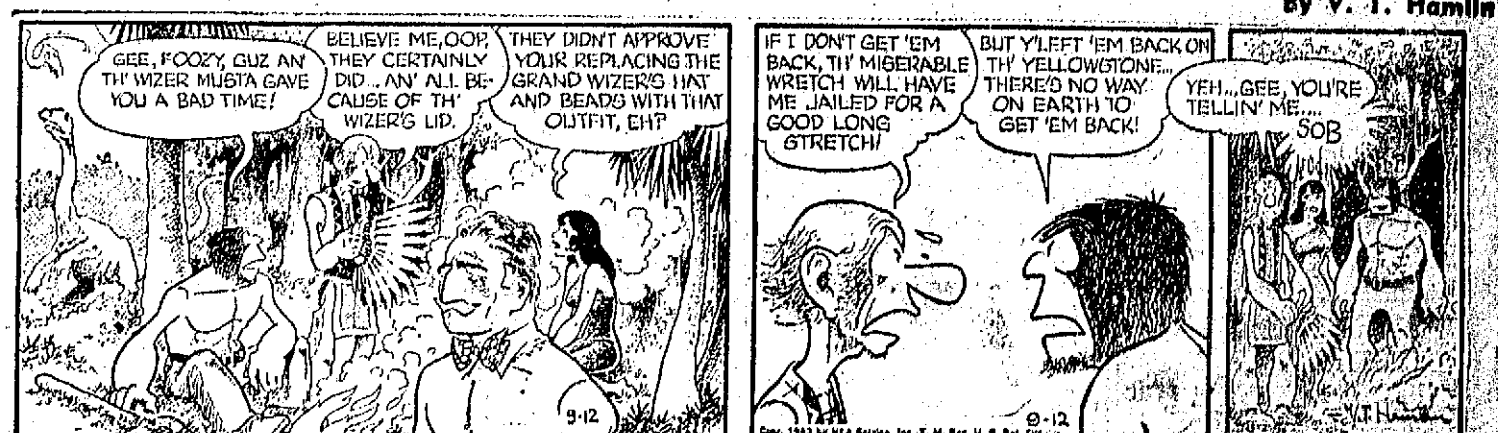

BUGS BUNNY

ALLEY OOP

By V. T. Hamlin

CHRIS WELKIN, Planeteer

By Russ Winterbottom

THE STORY OF MARTHA WAYNE

By Wilson Scruggs

CARNIVAL

By Dick Turner

SIDE GLANCES

By Galbraith

CLASSIFIED

Ads Must Be In Office Day Before Publication

WANT AD RATES

Ads Must Be In Office Day Before Publication

Number of Words	One Day	Three Days	One Week	One Month
1-10	10c	25c	50c	1.00
11-20	15c	40c	80c	1.50
21-30	20c	55c	1.10	2.00
31-40	25c	70c	1.30	2.50
41-50	30c	85c	1.50	3.00
51-60	35c	1.00	1.70	3.50
61-70	40c	1.15	1.90	4.00
71-80	45c	1.30	2.10	4.50
81-90	50c	1.45	2.30	5.00
91-100	55c	1.60	2.50	5.50

For Sale

RED AND yellow Delicous, also Jonathan Apples, A. W. Dixon, Rt. 3, Nashville, Arkansas. Phone 557-W-1.

MINIATURE Male Shetland Pony, Year and a half old, $200. Call 7-2410. 10-31

BARGAINS in used electric washers. See Oklahoma Tire & Supply Co., 110 East Second, Hope, Ark. 10-31

CANNING PEARS, J. J. Breyer, Phone 7-2076. 10-31

FISHING worms, 2 miles north on Breeding Ground Highway, Douglas Farm. 10-31

RECONDITIONED typewriter, $22.50. C. C. Bryant, 320 South Pine, Phone 7-5800. 11-31

PHIACALLY new B. C. Allen Adding Machine, Bargain. Call 7-2010. 12-31

1934 WILLYS Jeep, Metal top, excellent condition, Jordan Body Shop. 12-31

For Rent

FURNISHED 2 room apartment with Electric refrigerator. No children. Mrs. Judson, 220 North Elm. 14-12

LARGE 3 room upstairs furnished apartment. Private bath. Call 7-3174. 8-31

2 ROOM house, Electricity, deep well water, 1 1/2 miles out, $15 per month. Phone 7-3750. 8-31

3 ROOM furnished apartment. Private bath - modern - utilities paid. Carpet available. Adults only. 1 block from 321 W. 2nd. Goldwell Apartments. Phone 7-3814. 9-31

A PLACE for two. Nice, quiet, clean. Everything furnished. Ready to move in. See at 207 Shover Street. Phone 7-4186. 10-12

UNFURNISHED house at 1103 Foster Avenue. Phone 7-4446. 11-31

FRONT bedroom adjoining bath. Mrs. George Sandefur, 320 N. Washington, Phone 7-2125. 11-31

4 ROOM unfurnished duplex apartment with garage. 401 South Main. Phone 7-5807. 11-31

2 ROOM and bath apartment. Also bedroom with private bath. 1002 East Third. Phone 7-3184. 11-31

NEW STANDARD typewriters, $7.75 per month. Rental, pay apply on purchase. C. C. Bryant, 320 South Pine. Phone 7-5800. 11-31

THREE rooms, nicely furnished. Bills paid. 204 Banner. 8-12-12

Salesman Wanted

EXPERIENCED wholesale grocer salesman to travel out of Hope, Ark. Well established and good paying territory. Necessary to headquarter in Hope. Must have car. Apply in own handwriting giving age, past selling experience and references. Write box "C" c/o Hope Star. 8-31

LEADS

We have immediate opening for a man due to our expansion program. Protected territories in or near Hope.

Our men are trained in the field, we show you how to make from $100 to $300 each week. Must have car. Experience preferred but not necessary. No flunkeys please.

For interview contact or write Paul Differding, 1511 Cross, Little Rock, Ark. Phone 4-4829 after 5 p. m. MO-60740.

The White Cross Plan Issued by the BANKERS LIFE & CASUALTY CO.

Chicago 30, Illinois. 10-31

VACANCY

AAA-1 Texas Company has local territory open in Arkansas selling highest quality Heavy Duty Lubricants. Restricted territory. Field training furnished. Generous Company-paid retirement program. Excellent earnings from start, based on top commissions. Successful applicant must have a good car; be free to travel five days a week; and should have had previous sales experience. Personal interview arranged. Air Mail applications to Sargent Hill, Panther Oil & Grease Mfg. Co., P. O. Box 711, Fort Worth, Texas. 11-31

Notice

WE DO CUSTOM Butchering and Processing of Beef anytime you want. Call Moore Bros., 7-4431. 8-8-1M

BRING your sewing needs to Mrs. Puryear, P12 E. Third, Phone 7-4614. 10-31

PLENTY of used tire bargains at Oklahoma Tire & Supply Co., Hope, Ark. 10-31

Lost

MEXICAN billfold containing $9 in currency, registration papers, driver's license and other papers with name Donald Ray Bailey. If found phone 7-2320. 10-31

Services Offered

LOCAL and long distance hauling. Also local moving. See Danne Hamilton or call 7-3011. A-16-1M

Special Session Is Not Likely

WASHINGTON—House Speaker Joseph W. Martin Jr. (R-Mass.) today ruled out the possibility of a special session of Congress later this year but conceded "there will be plenty of work next year."

Visiting the Capitol for a few days, he told newsmen he was certain there would be no extra session this year.

He said earlier talk of a special session hinged on the belief that administration might regard it as necessary for Congress to boost the national debt limit, which it refused to do just before adjourning last month. Since then, however, administration fiscal experts have indicated that the present statute debt limit of 275 billion dollars would not be reached this year.

Martin said that during the month he had been away from Washington he found the people generally are not discontent with the Republican administration's policies and progress.

About three fourths of U. S. forest land is privately owned.

Fish Finally Came in View of Camera

By FRANK CAREY
AP Science Reporter

ABOARD THE U. S. NAVAL LAUNCH IMPULSE ON LAKE MINNETOCA, Wis., Sept. 11—It looked for awhile as though the first American test of a unique Canadian underwater television system would be a complete flop—with nary a fish on the program.

It even looked for a time as though Canadian-American relations might come on a small scale, because the Canadian technicians operating the equipment started remarking about the "turbidity" of Lake MinnetoCA's waters — and saying how top-hole jelly the underwater TV conditions are in Canada's Lake MinnetoCA.

Matters weren't helped when observers, vainly waiting for a fish on the TV screen linked with a 100-foot line of equipment dunked in the lake, saw a woman aboard a small boat nearby haul in a couple of beautiful perch with drop lines.

But the fish finally showed up. And if there had been an audience reaction recorder on board, they would have wound up with the highest Hooper rating of the week.

Only Dr. Arthur Hasler, University of Wisconsin expert on fish, remained relatively calm as perch after perch paraded into view.

"I wasn't worried a bit all along," he vowed. "The perch just didn't come home from work, they might say. Their appearance in large numbers right around sundown in this particular area gives administration fiscal experts have indicated that the present statute debt limit of 275 billion dollars would not be reached this year."

Martin said that during the month he had been away from Washington he found the people generally are not discontent with the Republican administration's policies and progress.

About three fourths of U. S. forest land is privately owned.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK—Don't let the second straight defeat of Ezzard Charles, this time by a lightweight, weight named Harold Johnson, make it plain that never that the whole blooming world has about run out of big men who can use their fists?

Who is Rocky Marciano to fight next, assuming that he conquers Roland LaStarza two weeks from tonight at the Polo Grounds? There simply is not a challenger worthy of the name, assuming that no one wants to see Jersey Joe Walcott come out of well-earned retirement. We have not heard a name, other than those of LaStarza and Charles, claim seriously that he has a man who might trim Rocky.

It seems strange to recall now that those who refused to accept Joe Louis' greatness when he was at his best liked to say that he had nothing to fight except a lot of bums. Marciano, who wants to be Billy Con or a Max Baer or a Max Schmeling or even a Tony Galento around these days to help him pack a few ball parks, as they helped Joe.

Don't let anybody ever tell you, the annual meeting of the American Institute of Biological Sciences.

The Canadians, representing the dominion's National Research Council, said there are only a few specially designed underwater TV systems in the world and that their is the only known one that has built-in propulsion.

The camera is housed in a waterproof steel cylinder which is equipped with motors and propellers allowing the device to move around under water like a tiny submarine—to the limit of a 500 foot cable. It can reverse and move in circles and can be pitched at a 45-degree angle up or down. All the actions are controllable from a switchboard alongside the TV screen on the boat.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Logan of St. Louis, Mo., are visiting John Moss and other relatives.

Eddie S. Fauette spent Labor Day visiting his sister, Mrs. Rena Cole in Washington.

Mrs. Mollie Levels left Saturday for an extended visit with relatives and friends in Kansas City, Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Cole of Mineral Springs were house guests of Mrs. Isadore Cole in Washington recently.

James Nelson is attending Philadelphia Smith College in Little Rock.

The new picnic grounds will open on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays. There will be a baseball game Sunday, September 13, between Hope and Mt. Olive. Refreshments will be sold.

Lucy Barrett was carrying a tea tray upstairs. She moved out of sight and gave a choked cry. China tinkled sharply and a needle had been jabbed into her arm and that was all she could remember for a long while. When she woke up, she was lying on a sofa in a dark room. It was so dark that she couldn't see anything at all and she only knew it was a sofa because her head was against the upholstered arm. The upholstery had a big hole in it, and it smelled horrid, of mice and dust. They kept her in the dark all the time. They gave her food in the dark. The only time the light was turned on was when they jabbed a needle into her arm, but she couldn't see anything then because her eyes were bandaged. "It was always dark..." Her mouth bunched and she began to shake badly.

"That's enough," Philip said. "Don't think of it any more. You don't have to. It's over."

Libby drew a long, shuddering breath and tried to smile. "Yes," she said, "it's over, isn't it?—and I'm here and they won't be able to get at me again."

Her color had faded and her eyes were big.

The nurse came in with a tray then. Dr. Terry followed her. "Out," he said to Libby and Philip. "This young lady is going to have some lunch now and I'm going to stay and see she eats it." They went without a word, too overcome to say anything.

That afternoon Tony Wilder telephoned again. He asked how Libby was and when Kit said much better he said that was splendid. "Will you give her a message, Miss Haven? Will you tell her I'm coming up to Denfield?"

Kit said, "Libby is better, Mr. Wilder, but she's not nearly well enough to see anyone yet."

"Then, let me talk to her."

Kit deliberated. Anything was preferable to having the fellow camp on their doorstep. The upstairs extension was close to Libby's room, just outside the door. Kit chose the lesser of two evils. She said, "Hold on, Mr. Wilder, and I'll see."

The nurse was downstairs making tea and Libby was out of bed and on the chair near a window. She looked surprised when Kit told her Tony Wilder was on the phone, and then pleased. Kit said, "I can't get rid of him." "Do you want to talk to him?"

Libby said, "Yes, I feel fine," and got up. Kit left her sitting in the little chair beside the phone in the upper hall saying hello cheerfully to Wilder and went downstairs and outside. There was no one around. Philip and her aunt had both gone into town.

When Kit thought Libby must be through, she went in the house. Copyright, 1932, 1933, by Helen Reilly, by arrangement with RANDOM HOUSE, Distributed by King Features Syndicate.

The Negro Community

By Helen Turner
Phone 7-5830
Or bring letters to Mrs. Turner at Hicks Funeral Home

Mrs. Mollie Levels left Saturday for an extended visit with relatives and friends in Kansas City, Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Cole of Mineral Springs were house guests of Mrs. Isadore Cole in Washington recently.

James Nelson is attending Philadelphia Smith College in Little Rock.

The new picnic grounds will open on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays. There will be a baseball game Sunday, September 13, between Hope and Mt. Olive. Refreshments will be sold.

Lucy Barrett was carrying a tea tray upstairs. She moved out of sight and gave a choked cry. China tinkled sharply and a needle had been jabbed into her arm and that was all she could remember for a long while. When she woke up, she was lying on a sofa in a dark room. It was so dark that she couldn't see anything at all and she only knew it was a sofa because her head was against the upholstered arm. The upholstery had a big hole in it, and it smelled horrid, of mice and dust. They kept her in the dark all the time. They gave her food in the dark. The only time the light was turned on was when they jabbed a needle into her arm, but she couldn't see anything then because her eyes were bandaged. "It was always dark..." Her mouth bunched and she began to shake badly.

"That's enough," Philip said. "Don't think of it any more. You don't have to. It's over."

Libby drew a long, shuddering breath and tried to smile. "Yes," she said, "it's over, isn't it?—and I'm here and they won't be able to get at me again."

Her color had faded and her eyes were big.

The nurse came in with a tray then. Dr. Terry followed her. "Out," he said to Libby and Philip. "This young lady is going to have some lunch now and I'm going to stay and see she eats it." They went without a word, too overcome to say anything.

That afternoon Tony Wilder telephoned again. He asked how Libby was and when Kit said much better he said that was splendid. "Will you give her a message, Miss Haven? Will you tell her I'm coming up to Denfield?"

Kit said, "Libby is better, Mr. Wilder, but she's not nearly well enough to see anyone yet."

"Then, let me talk to her."

Kit deliberated. Anything was preferable to having the fellow camp on their doorstep. The upstairs extension was close to Libby's room, just outside the door. Kit chose the lesser of two evils. She said, "Hold on, Mr. Wilder, and I'll see."

The nurse was downstairs making tea and Libby was out of bed and on the chair near a window. She looked surprised when Kit told her Tony Wilder was on the phone, and then pleased. Kit said, "I can't get rid of him." "Do you want to talk to him?"

Libby said, "Yes, I feel fine," and got up. Kit left her sitting in the little chair beside the phone in the upper hall saying hello cheerfully to Wilder and went downstairs and outside. There was no one around. Philip and her aunt had both gone into town.

When Kit thought Libby must be through, she went in the house. Copyright, 1932, 1933, by Helen Reilly, by arrangement with RANDOM HOUSE, Distributed by King Features Syndicate.

THE STANDINGS

By The Associated Press
AMERICAN LEAGUE

Team	W	L	Pct
New York	92	45	.672
Cleveland	84	57	.596
Chicago	81	60	.574
Boston	77	65	.542
Was.ington	71	60	.537
Detroit	55	87	.387
Philadelphia	53	88	.376
St. Louis	50	92	.352

Today's Games

Cleveland at Washington — 10:15	Houston at New York — 10:15
Detroit at New York — 10:15	Chicago at Philadelphia — 10:15
St. Louis at Philadelphia — 10:15	Brooklyn at Philadelphia — 10:15
St. Louis at Philadelphia — 10:15	Brooklyn at Philadelphia — 10:15

Yesterday's Results

Detroit 3; New York 2 (10 innings)	St. Louis 2; Boston 0
Chicago 3; Philadelphia 4	Washington 6; 4
Washington 6; Cleveland 4

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Team	W	L	Pct
Brooklyn	97	44	.689
Milwaukee	85	56	.603
St. Louis	77	62	.554
Philadelphia	76	64	.543
New York	63	76	.450
Chicago	61	80	.433
Pittsburgh	57	82	.410

Today's Games

Brooklyn at Milwaukee — 10:15	St. Louis at Philadelphia — 10:15
Philadelphia at Cincinnati — 10:15	Pittsburgh at St. Louis — 10:15
St. Louis at Philadelphia — 10:15	Brooklyn at Philadelphia — 10:15
St. Louis at Philadelphia — 10:15	Brooklyn at Philadelphia — 10:15

Yesterday's Results

Milwaukee 9; Brooklyn 8 (10 innings)	Chicago 5; New York 2
Cincinnati 6; Philadelphia 5	St. Louis 5; Pittsburgh 3

FRIDAY NIGHT'S FIGHT

be sold.

There will be a women's roast and ice cream supper in the basement of Beebe Memorial CME Church, Saturday night, September 12, sponsored by the Missionary Society. The public is invited.

The Community Club is sponsoring a women's roast Saturday night, September 12, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Norwood. The public is invited.

The Rev. P. T. Turner will preach at St. Paul Baptist Church in Texarkana Sunday, September 13, at 11 a.m.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Brooklyn, outpointed Dany ibang New York—Carmine Firco, 146, Brooklyn, outpointed Dany ibang Bangi Womber, 148, Chicago, 1.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

TODAY'S SCHEDULE
Nashville at Atlanta
Memphis at Birmingham
FRIDAY'S RESULTS
Birmingham 4, Memphis (Birmingham leads 2-1 in best of seven.)
Nashville 3, Atlanta 6 (Nashville leads 2-1 in best of seven.)

COLLEGE FOOTBALL

By the associated press
Wyne (Neb.) Teachers 19, Agostana (S.D.) 0
Pittsburg (Kan.) State 12, Olathe (Kan.) Naval Air Station 2

MINOR LEAGUE BASEBALL

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE
Los Angeles 3-4, San Francisco 1

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Oakland 9, Hollywood 0
San Jose 4, Sacramento 1 (6 innings)
San Diego 5, Portland 4
AMERICAN ASSOCIATION
Columbus 5, Indianapolis 4
St. Paul 6, Louisville 4
Toledo 4, Charleston 2
KANSAS CITY 13, Minneapolis 8

WESTERN LEAGUE

Denver 9, Lincoln 2
Des Moines 5, Colorado Springs 5 (13-inning tie)
Omaha 3, Pueblo 1
Wichita 5, Sioux City 3
SOUTHERN ASSOCIATION

PLAYOFFS

1/2 Birmingham 4, Memphis 1 (Birmingham leads best of seven series, 2-1)
Nashville 6, Atlanta 6 (Nashville leads best of seven series, 2-1)
Oklahoma City 11, Dallas 4 (Oklahoma City leads best of seven series, 3-0)
Tulsa 8, Fort Worth 6 (Tulsa leads best of seven series, 2-1)

Three Arkansans Among Missing

Arkansans were named today in a Defense Department list of 247 Americans who are missing after having been reported Communist prisoners in Korea.

They are part of 944 American servicemen still unaccounted for after completion of the prisoner exchange. Close relatives have been notified that efforts are being made to determine their fate.

The Arkansans are:
PFC James E. Beller, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Beller, 1322 N. Sixth St., Fort Smith.
PFC Edward S. Harry, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Harry, Rt. 2, Jacksonville.
Cpl. Tracy R. Roden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arch C. Roden, Gillham.

Na Barranquillo, Colombia, red traffic lights have advertisements on them.

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN

LIBBY'S nervous energy was beginning to flag. She said that she had been put into a car and a needle had been jabbed into her arm and that was all she could remember for a long while. When she woke up, she was lying on a sofa in a dark room. It was so dark that she couldn't see anything at all and she only knew it was a sofa because her head was against the upholstered arm. The upholstery had a big hole in it, and it smelled horrid, of mice and dust. They kept her in the dark all the time. They gave her food in the dark. The only time the light was turned on was when they jabbed a needle into her arm, but she couldn't see anything then because her eyes were bandaged. "It was always dark..." Her mouth bunched and she began to shake badly.

"That's enough," Philip said. "Don't think of it any more. You don't have to. It's over."

Libby drew a long, shuddering breath and tried to smile. "Yes," she said, "it's over, isn't it?—and I'm here and they won't be able to get at me again."

Her color had faded and her eyes were big.

The nurse came in with a tray then. Dr. Terry followed her. "Out," he said to Libby and Philip. "This young lady is going to have some lunch now and I'm going to stay and see she eats it." They went without a word, too overcome to say anything.

That afternoon Tony Wilder telephoned again. He asked how Libby was and when Kit said much better he said that was splendid. "Will you give her a message, Miss Haven? Will you tell her I'm coming up to Denfield?"

Kit said, "Libby is better, Mr. Wilder, but she's not nearly well enough to see anyone yet."

"Then, let me talk to her."

Kit deliberated. Anything was preferable to having the fellow camp on their doorstep. The upstairs extension was close to Libby's room, just outside the door. Kit chose the lesser of two evils. She said, "Hold on, Mr. Wilder, and I'll see."

The nurse was downstairs making tea and Libby was out of bed and on the chair near a window. She looked surprised when Kit told her Tony Wilder was on the phone, and then pleased. Kit said, "I can't get rid of him." "Do you want to talk to him?"

Libby said, "Yes, I feel fine," and got up. Kit left her sitting in the little chair beside the phone in the upper hall saying hello cheerfully to Wilder and went downstairs and outside. There was no one around. Philip and her aunt had both gone into town.

When Kit thought Libby must be through, she went in the house. Copyright, 1932, 1933, by Helen Reilly, by arrangement with RANDOM HOUSE, Distributed by King Features Syndicate.

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN

LIBBY'S nervous energy was beginning to flag. She said that she had been put into a car and a needle had been jabbed into her arm and that was all she could remember for a long while. When she woke up, she was lying on a sofa in a dark room. It was so dark that she couldn't see anything at all and she only knew it was a sofa because her head was against the upholstered arm. The upholstery had a big hole in it, and it smelled horrid, of mice and dust. They kept her in the dark all the time. They gave her food in the dark. The only time the light was turned on was when they jabbed a needle into her arm, but she couldn't see anything then because her eyes were bandaged. "It was always dark..." Her mouth bunched and she began to shake badly.

"That's enough," Philip said. "Don't think of it any more. You don't have to. It's over."

Libby drew a long, shuddering breath and tried to smile. "Yes," she said, "it's over, isn't it?—and I'm here and they won't be able to get at me again."

Her color had faded and her eyes were big.

The nurse came in with a tray then. Dr. Terry followed her. "Out," he said to Libby and Philip. "This young lady is going to have some lunch now and I'm going to stay and see she eats it." They went without a word, too overcome to say anything.

That afternoon Tony Wilder telephoned again. He asked how Libby was and when Kit said much better he said that was splendid. "Will you give her a message, Miss Haven? Will you tell her I'm coming up to Denfield?"

Kit said, "Libby is better, Mr. Wilder, but she's not nearly well enough to see anyone yet."

"Then, let me talk to her."

Kit deliberated. Anything was preferable to having the fellow camp on their doorstep. The upstairs extension was close to Libby's room, just outside the door. Kit chose the lesser of two evils. She said, "Hold on, Mr. Wilder, and I'll see."

The nurse was downstairs making tea and Libby was out of bed and on the chair near a window. She looked surprised when Kit told her Tony Wilder was on the phone, and then pleased. Kit said, "I can't get rid of him." "Do you want to talk to him?"

Libby said, "Yes, I feel fine," and got up. Kit left her sitting in the little chair beside the phone in the upper hall saying hello cheerfully to Wilder and went downstairs and outside. There was no one around. Philip and her aunt had both gone into town.

When Kit thought Libby must be through, she went in the house. Copyright, 1932, 1933, by Helen Reilly, by arrangement with RANDOM HOUSE, Distributed by King Features Syndicate.

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN

LIBBY'S nervous energy was beginning to flag. She said that she had been put into a car and a needle had been jabbed into her arm and that was all she could remember for a long while. When she woke up, she was lying on a sofa in a dark room. It was so dark that she couldn't see anything at all and she only knew it was a sofa because her head was against the upholstered arm. The upholstery had a big hole in it, and it smelled horrid, of mice and dust. They kept her in the dark all the time. They gave her food in the dark. The only time the light was turned on was when they jabbed a needle into her arm, but she couldn't see anything then because her eyes were bandaged. "It was always dark..." Her mouth bunched and she began to shake badly.

"That's enough," Philip said. "Don't think of it any more. You don't have to. It's over."

Libby drew a long, shuddering breath and tried to smile. "Yes," she said, "it's over, isn't it?—and I'm here and they won't be able to get at me again."

Her color had faded and her eyes were big.

The nurse came in with a tray then. Dr. Terry followed her. "Out," he said to Libby and Philip. "This young lady is going to have some lunch now and I'm going to stay and see she eats it." They went without a word, too overcome to say anything.

That afternoon Tony Wilder telephoned again. He asked how Libby was and when Kit said much better he said that was splendid. "Will you give her a message, Miss Haven? Will you tell her I'm coming up to Denfield?"

Kit said, "Libby is better, Mr. Wilder, but she's not nearly well enough to see anyone yet."

"Then, let me talk to her."

Kit deliberated. Anything was preferable to having the fellow camp on their doorstep. The upstairs extension was close to Libby's room, just outside the door. Kit chose the lesser of two evils. She said, "Hold on, Mr. Wilder, and I'll see."

The nurse was downstairs making tea and Libby was out of bed and on the chair near a window. She looked surprised when Kit told her Tony Wilder was on the phone, and then pleased. Kit said, "I can't get rid of him." "Do you want to talk to him?"

Libby said, "Yes, I feel fine," and got up. Kit left her sitting in the little chair beside the phone in the upper hall saying hello cheerfully to Wilder and went downstairs and outside. There was no one around. Philip and her aunt had both gone into town.

When Kit thought Libby must be through, she went in the house. Copyright, 1932, 1933, by Helen Reilly, by arrangement with RANDOM HOUSE, Distributed by King Features Syndicate.

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN

LIBBY'S nervous energy was beginning to flag. She said that she had been put into a car and a needle had been jabbed into her arm and that was all she could remember for a long while. When she woke up, she was lying on a sofa in a dark room. It was so dark that she couldn't see anything at all and she only knew it was a sofa because her head was against the upholstered arm. The upholstery had a big hole in it, and it smelled horrid, of mice and dust. They kept her in the dark all the time. They gave her food in the dark. The only time the light was turned on was when they jabbed a needle into her arm, but she couldn't see anything then because her eyes were bandaged. "It was always dark..." Her mouth bunched and she began to shake badly.

"That's enough," Philip said. "Don't think of it any more. You don't have to. It's over."

Libby drew a long, shuddering breath and tried to smile. "Yes," she said, "it's over, isn't it?—and I'm here and they won't be able to get at me again."

Her color had faded and her eyes were big.

The nurse came in with a tray then. Dr. Terry followed her. "Out," he said to Libby and Philip. "This young lady is going to have some lunch now and I'm going to stay and see she eats it." They went without a word, too overcome to say anything.

That afternoon Tony Wilder telephoned again. He asked how Libby was and when Kit said much better he said that was splendid. "Will you give her a message, Miss Haven? Will you tell her I'm coming up to Denfield?"

Kit said, "Libby is better, Mr. Wilder, but she's not nearly well enough to see anyone yet."

"Then, let me talk to her."

Kit deliberated. Anything was preferable to having the fellow camp on their doorstep. The upstairs extension was close to Libby's room, just outside the door. Kit chose the lesser of two evils. She said, "Hold on, Mr. Wilder, and I'll see."

The nurse was downstairs making tea and Libby was out of bed and on the chair near a window. She looked surprised